

The Daily Gazetteer.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 20, 1745.

Charles-Town, April 30.

On the 16th Instant, the Emperor of the Cherokee Indians, with most of the head Men of that Nation, and many of the principal Warriors and others (to the Number of One hundred and Thirty) arrived in Town; and at the same Time came the King of the Catawba's, with Eighteen of the head Men of that Nation.

The Cherokees had not been in this Province for some Years, and had sent some Months ago to Governor Glenn, to acquaint him, that they intended to visit him, to renew their antient Friendship with this Government, and to get Commissions: They were received with great Ceremony and Civility; and, after seeing every Thing in this Place, they were sent on board his Majesty's Ship Aldborough, commanded by Capt. Ashby Utting, and then to Fort Johnson. And, having received large Presents (given them by the Public, and likewise by his Excellency), they set out on Saturday last on their Return to their own Country, highly pleased and satisfied with their kind Treatment.

At their first Conference with the Governor, in the Council-Chamber (in the Presence of the Council, most of the Members of Assembly, and many of the Inhabitants) his Excellency told them, That he was glad to see them, and was ready to hear what they had to say. But the Emperor (addressing himself to the Governor) said, You, Sir, are our eldest Brother. Upon which his Excellency spoke as follows:

IN the Name of the great King George, our supreme Head and Sovereign, and in the Name of all the White People of Carolina, I bid you, the Emperor of the Cherokees, and you, the King of the Catawba's, heartily welcome to Charles-Town.

And those your beloved Men, your grave Counsellors, and brave Warriors, Men truly wise and valiant, are likewise welcome.

You are come to strengthen and confirm the antient Friendship and Union that was made by your Forefathers with this Government; and it is a singular Pleasure to me, to see you tread in their Steps; to find that you pursue the same Path of Virtue with your renowned Ancestors; and that your Adherence and Fidelity to this Government is as steady and unshaken as theirs.

And this I learn, not by common Fame only, but by your Actions, and by the friendly and brotherly Letters and Messages which you sent me, promising an inviolable Attachment to the British Interest.

May the good Correspondence that at present subsists betwixt this Government and the Cherokee and Catawba Nations always continue; may the Chain of Friendship, by which we are linked together, be for ever bright and clear, like the Sun in its Meridian Splendor, without Spots and Clouds; may it remain firm, fixed, and immovable, like your native Mountains.

And, in order thereto, I shall give immediate Directions for Commissions, under the Great Seal of this Province, to you, Sir, as Emperor of the Cherokees; and to you, as King of the Catawba's; requiring all and your People to obey you, as their Rulers: These Offices belong to you by Birth; you likewise hold them by a better Tenure, the Desires and Wishes of a willing People; and, lastly, they will be confirmed to you by the Commission which I shall give you.

From henceforth let us all consider Ourselves as Brothers, as Children of the same Family, of the same common Father, as Subjects of the same great King George, who is Head, and Father, and King over us All.

He is indeed a very powerful Prince, and mighty Monarch: He rules over many great and flourishing Kingdoms, over many fair and fertile Countries; his Subjects are rich and wealthy, strong and mighty, and numerous as the Stars of the Heaven, as the Trees in your thick Woods, or as the Leaves on those Trees.

But who is able to describe the Greatness of our King: Should I attempt it, Words would be wanting, neither would the Day be sufficient.

And yet his Greatness is exceeded by his Goodness: His chief Happiness consists in the Happiness of his People: He despises Danger, and surmounts Difficulties that would oppose their Welfare: He submits to Toil and Fatigue, to purchase Rest and Quiet to his Subjects: He often watches, that they may sleep in Security.

Rejoice therefore you Cherokee and Catawba Nations, and join your Joy with the white People of Carolina, that we are the Subjects of such a Prince; One so Great and Good; the Delight of his own People; the Dread of his Enemies; the Stay and Support of sinking States; the Scourge of proud and perfidious Princes.

This the Spaniards (with whom we have been at War for some Years) are now sensible of: This the French (against whom we have lately declared War) will soon feel to their Cost.

But, as we are at War with both these Nations; and as our Enemies are your Enemies; I expect, that, whenever I send for you, you will all come at my Call against the common Enemy: And, likewise, that you will not suffer any Agents or emissaries from them, either French or Indian, to come amongst you, to withdraw you from your Duty, and to alienate your Hearts from this Government; but that you will apprehend them, and deliver them to our Traders to be sent to me.

I shall give Directions, that the Traders, that may be sent to you, be such as love your Nation; Men of Honesty and Probity, who will not over-reach or impose upon you; and if any shall do it (upon your Application to me) I will send others in their Room.

I shall give Directions, that they be well supplied with such Goods as are proper for your Trade; but I recommend to you, to be sparing in the Use of Rum, which, in Time, will enervate you, so as to render you unfit either for War or Hunting: And, in general, I must inform you, that many of our People being in the Wars, Goods of all Kinds are scarcer and dearer than at other Times.

Should any of the Traders kill any of your People, I will cause to punish him, as if he had killed a white Man: And, in like Manner, should any Indian kill a white Man, he must be delivered up to me, to be punished as so great a Crime deserves. I hope, that none of your People will take Goods from the Traders at their own Hands, or break open any of their Stores; and should any presume to do it, I desire that you, the Rulers and head Men, may see them punished: And, in general, I recommend to you to be kind to our Traders, just in your Dealings with, and punctual in paying them their Debts.

The great King our Royal Master, whom I have already mentioned (of whose Magnificence many of the Cherokees, now dead, have been Eye-Witnesses), has sent me to this Country, to be the Father of all his white and red People: You are come far to see me, and to hear my Words: I have now spoken; and I desire that you remember what I have said, that, when you return among your own People, you may tell it to the young Men and old Men, to your Wives, and to your Children, that it may be remembered to the latest Generation. I, for my Part, shall remember what I have said, and faithfully perform what I have promised.

I have ordered Presents to be made ready for you, which shall be delivered to you in a few Days; and I shall be glad then to hear what you have to say to me.

I deliver back those Articles; and I shall order, that your Commissions be renewed: And also, my Talk shall be delivered to you in Writing, and the Great Seal affixed thereto.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

Modena, August 6. The Troops that lately marched thro' Tuscany, after having employed 300 Men for some Time in repairing the Road to St. Pellegrino and Graftagna, have taken the Route by Massa, into the Plains, and march at a great Rate. The Army of the Count de Gages, in the mean time, has extended its Quarters on the other Side the Po, into the Pavese, as well as into the Duchy of Placentia; where they have collected a great Quantity of Forage, and have likewise demanded a considerable Number of Horses and Waggon. We had this Morning certain Intelligence, that over and above all this, the Count de Gages insists that all the Inhabitants in general, of the Places which have fallen into his Possession, shall, without delay, take an Oath of Fidelity to the King of Spain. We make no doubt, that the next News we shall hear, will be, that he has attacked, and taken, the Castle of Placentia; in which there is only 16 Cannon, two Mortars, and a very slender Garrison, composed of Invalids and Irregular Troops.

Dresden, August 14. The King of Poland, our most Serene Elector, has lately caused a Declaration to be made to the Foreign Ministers at his Court; importing, made to the Foreign Ministers at his Court; importing, That as he is fully satisfied of the Expediency of giving, without any farther delay, a new Head to the German Empire, he is determined to concur in hastening that Measure, agreeable to the Request of the King of Great Britain, Elector of Hanover; and the Instructions of the Count de Loos are actually drawing, agreeable to this Declaration; and he will set out in a few Days for Frankfort. The Count de Mantuffel, who was formerly Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, is hourly expected from Leipzig, in order to receive his Majesty's Instructions, being shortly to go in Quality of his Minister Plenipotentiary to the Court of Vienna. We are absolutely ignorant of the Reason of his Journey; but it is said he is charged with a Commission of Importance, and that he will not remain there long. The Day before Yesterday the Count de Vitzthum arrived here from Bohemia, with Letters from the Duke de Saxe Weissenfels, the Contents of which are kept very secret. We are still alarmed here by the Apprehension of an Invasion from the Prussians; in case it should take Effect, Count Rutowski has the King's Orders to march immediately into the Duchy of Magdebourg, and even to attack that City.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, August 12. On Friday 16 Waggon loaded with Chefts of small Arms, were brought from the Castle, and embarked aboard a Yacht at Leith, in order to be sent under Convoy of the Happy Jaunt to Inverness. And

On Saturday a Quantity of Powder and Ball was brought down from the said Garrison, for the Use of the Troops and Garisons.

That Night two Troops of General Hamilton's Dragoons came into Leith from the South Country. They marched Yesterday for Stirling (where we now hear the Camp is to be formed) and are to be followed by the other Troops of that Regiment, with their Field Equipage, &c.

Yesterday Afternoon four Field Pieces, four Cohorn Mortars, and about a Dozen of Waggon, containing Powder, Ball, Grape Shot, and other Military Apparatus, were sent from the Castle for Stirling, escorted by a Subaltern's Command, of the Hon. Col. Laforce's Regiment.

We hear that the Hon. Col. Garginer's Regiment of Dragoons will also march this Week for Stirling.

All the Detachments who were out at Work on the Roads, are returned to their respective Regiments.

Yesterday Alexander Fraser, sometime Servant to John Drummond, Captain in the French Service, was committed to the City Jail by Warrant of the Right Honourable Robert Craigie, Esq; his Majesty's Advocate, a guilty of Treason. We hear that he was apprehended at Leith, and he came over with the Ships from Holland. He is about 20 Years old.

The Fox Man of War, Capt. Beaver, is arrived in the Frith, with the Trade from Holland, except the Nelly of Leith, Joseph Borthwick, Master, which is said to have been taken by a Schooner Privateer before she joined the Convoy; but we hear the Fleet boarded and took the French Schooner.

Friday last Donald Bayne, Servant to Sir William Sinclair of Dunbeath, having unluckily discharged one of his Master's Pistols in a Park belonging to Mr. Bouchier in Abbeyhill, accidentally shot a Bullet into the Head of Robert Ross, Servant to the said M. Bouchier, so that his Life is in Danger; for which the said Bayne was committed to Prison by Warrant of the Honourable his Majesty's Solicitor.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Bristol, August 17. There are now ready to put Sea, the first fair Wind, the following Privateers; viz-

The Duke of Bedford, of 26 Guns, the Husqueto of 20 Guns, both fine new Ships; the Rover, of 10 Guns; the Prince Charles, of 20 Guns; the Duke of Marlborough, late the Prime Minister of London, in Guns; and the Tryal, 18 Guns.

Norwich, August 17. Last Wednesday Thomas Seam (the Journeyman Weaver at Trowie, whose House pretended was broke open, and the Work cut off Loom) was committed to Jail, on Suspicion of committing the said Fact; the Staff being found buried in his own Garden, and other strong Circumstances appearing against him.

Admiralty-Office, August 17, 1745.

Whereas, notwithstanding the repeated Admonitions and Directions of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, for the more speedy holding the Courts Martial to enquire into the Conduct and Behaviour of several Com- manders and Officers of his Majesty's Fleet in the late Engagement near Toulon, the same hath not hitherto been effected, which has been in great Measure owing to the Number and Distance of the Witnesses to be examined, pre- vious to such Trials, as well as to the Variety and Extent of the Materials necessary for the several Charges; some of which have been but lately exhibited.

Their Lordships thinking it absolutely necessary to for- ward the said Trials with all possible Dispatch, in Con- sideration of the Justice due to the Publick, of the many Inconveniencies the Service itself suffers, and of the great Hardships the Parties concerned, both as Evidences and Principals, labour under, until the Matters depending are determined, do hereby declare, That the said Courts Martial are fixed for the 1st of October next; and do direct all Persons concerned, to prepare and hold themselves in Read- iness to attend upon that Day, at such Place as shall be appointed for the said Trials. And furthermore, it is their Lordships express Command and Direction, that all Wit- nesses do pay immediate Obedience to such Summons, as they shall from Time to Time receive, in order to their Examinations, as they will answer the contrary at their Peril.

Thomas Corbett.

Tower of London, August 17, 1745.

THE Principal Officers of his Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give Notice, That whoever will discover to them any Arms, concealed in any Part of Great Britain, so as the same may be properly secured, till his Majesty's Pleasure shall be known therein; the Name or Names of the Person or Persons, who shall make such Discovery, shall be concealed, if required; and he, or they, shall receive, as a Reward for the same, after the Rate of Twenty-five Pounds for every One Hundred Arms, and so in Proportion, be the Number more or less.

With a new Copious and Accurate T A B L E. Printed for JOHN WATKINS over-against the Royal-Ex- change in Cornhill.

The Grand SPECIFIC SYRUP for CHILDREN.

This Syrup, by many Years Expe- rience, has been remarkably serviceable in all known against Convulsions and Epilepsies, when running Teeth. It expels Wind, prevents four Belchings, and frequent Pukings, helps Digestion, and effectually cures Gripes. Its Virtues are known to be of uncommon Service in the Chin or Convulsive Coughs, likewise in all Con- stive Cases, either of Children or Grown People, from Con- stitions, Knots or Ulcers in the Lungs, attended with Con- cataphs, Hectic Fevers, Night-Sweats, Flushings, and In- ings of the Flesh; likewise in those Eruptions of Ich- tica called the Red-Gum, entirely rooting out and destroying the Acrimonious Humour and inward Heat of the Throat, when- for want of timely Relief, kills multitudes of Infants.

It is so innocent, that it may be taken by a Child of a Day old; and is so far from laying the Foundation of a Train of Evils, by stupifying the Senses, and only easing the pains Pains, pausing the Stomach, &c. which are well known to attend all Preparations of Opiates, and which, by wounding the perience, has ruined multitudes of Infants, by locking up in the Vessels those very Mischiefs they were given to expect, and which, in a little Time, break out with a double Force, th rebv at once running the Constitution of the Infant, if not terminating in Death.

Sold at Dr. BATEMAN'S Warehouse, in Low Church-Yard, London, at One Shilling the Bot- tie, containing about an Ounce and a half, sealed as in the Mar- gin, with copious Directions and Instructions in every Case, ac- cident to Children; together with a brief Account of the Nature and Original Cause as well as Cure, of the Diffempens common to Infants, according to the Op- inion of the best Authors, An- cient and Modern.

The so-much Fam'd HIPO-DROPS.

Which in a few Days infallibly cure HYPOCHONDRIACK MELANCHOLY in MEN, and the VAPOURS in WOMEN, so as never to return again, be they ever so severe, or of many Years standing, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual; and that by immediately striking at the very Root or true Cause, as well as remedying the Effects, of those perplexing Maladies and all their Vari- ety of Symptoms, by which they mimic, by Turns, almost all the Diseases poor Mortals are afflicted with, and have their Rise from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigestion of Food, whence proceed Crudities and flatulent or windy Disorders in the first Passages, Ill Fumes, four Belchings, Cholick, and Uneasiness in the Bowels; which Crudities, offend the Nerves, and, by Consent of Parts, affect the Head, and produce sometimes Giddiness, Dimness of Sight, confused Thoughts, pertinacious Watchings, troublesome Sleep, Frights, groundless Fears, and the deepest Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehensions; at other times, Fits, Flushing Heats, Reachings, Faintness, Lowness and Sinking of Spirits, Palpitation of the Heart, Startings, Tremblings, and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulsive Disorders, sharp Pains, fix'd or wan- dering Pain and Weakness in the Back, and other, almost innumerable and grievous, Symptoms, which miserably afflict vast Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms, in their sharpest Paroxysms, thick to much fam'd and most pleasant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the most valuable Specifics in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the highest Degree of Perfection possible) instantly quell, and at the same time annihilate their real Cause, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, rectify- ing the Digestion, occasioning laudable Chyle, and, of course, good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and cheerful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves, so that both Cause and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours, are thoroughly removed by them, almost on the Spot, as the many Thousands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured, evince.

Whoever takes them for 3 Days only, will be sensible they are absolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and lasting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross-Knops and Star in Cornhill, below the Royal Exchange, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle with printed Directions at large.

CONFECTIO POTENTISSIMA: OR, The most Powerful Restorative Confect in Nature FOR

IMPOTENCY in Men and BARRENNESS in Women, IS delightful to the Palate, most agree- able and cordial to the Stomach, enriches the Blood, en- creases the Spirits, invigorates the Nerves, and perfectly re- vivates all the Animal Faculties, and Generative Powers, in both Sexes, to such a Degree, as Words can scarcely express; and yet acts not only by a stimulating Quality, or blowing up a Flame, but by adding a true Subulum Amoris, a kindly Fuel, by which Nature is in a Manner regenerated, and so much Strengthened, Vigour, and Ability, immediately given, that Impotency, and every Kind of Weakness, or Imbecility in the Male Sex, and Barrenness, and all Sorts of Weakness, and Impotency in Con- jugal Rites in the Female Sex, are most infallibly and di- rectly cured by it, in a very pleasant and highly agreeable Manner infinitely beyond what any other Remedy can accom- plish. Decays of every Kind in either Sex, and all Seminal Weaknesses, however occasioned, it almost instantly cures, when nothing else will, and can be had only, by the Author's Appointment, at the Gentlewoman's at the Two Buz Potts, in Haydon-Yard in the Minories, London, at Five Shillings a Pot, with Printed Directions at large.
